VERSION 2.6.0
Effective 7.24.2024

ERRATA REFERENCE

This document contains the official errata to individual cards and other game components in Star Wars™: Legion. Errata overrides the originally printed text or information on the original game component. Unless errata from a game component appears below, the most recent English printing of that component is considered correct and overrides all other printings. This includes translated cards, promotional cards, and printings which may appear in other products.

COORDINATED FIRE (COMMAND CARD)

Replace the effect with the following:

After a friendly ▲ unit performs a ranged attack, if it spent 1 or more aim tokens, another friendly unit at range 1–2 may gain 1 aim token.
