

REMARKABLE OFFERING A UNIQUELY CHARACTERFUL HOME

A charming and beautifully crafted home in the Victorian style, in the heart of the venerable Easttown district of Arkham. Exquisite timber exterior, with Indiana limestone window sills and hardware grace its exterior. Within, a plethora of well-sized rooms presently given over to bedrooms, studies and more provide space for a family domicile or professional home, with plenty of room to grow. Frankly, an embarrassment of doors lie within!

Imagine promenading upon the widow's walk at night (unusually placed at the rear of the house), or taking the cool air on the veranda, breathing in the culture of this remarkable and historic home. No account whatsoever should be given to rumors and tall tales regarding spirits and ghost stories. Pembroke House is redolent with history both good and ill (as befits so storied a location)—yours could be its next grand adventure.
