Days of Wonder and Asmodee Announce Ticket to Ride® Legacy: Legends of the West An Immersive Railway Adventure, where you build your company success, game after game.

Paris, France — May 30, 2023. Days of Wonder and Asmodee announced Ticket to Ride® Legacy: Legends of the West, the most immersive railway adventure designed by Rob Daviau, Matt Leacock and Alan R. Moon.

In Ticket to Ride® Legacy: Legends of the West, players embark on twelve thrilling journeys, in which each manages a railroad in North America. As true 19th century pioneers, the campaign begins on the East Coast, with players working their way to the West Coast from one adventure to the next, meeting challenges along the way. Designed by three board game legends, Alan R. Moon, Rob Daviau and Matt Leacock, it took five years to develop this competitive and evolving campaign packed with twists and turns. Ticket to Ride Legacy: Legends of the West offers an immersive and narrative experience while remaining easy to learn, delighting all fans of the series. It establishes itself as a reference of this particular game format.

“We can’t wait to get this game into the hands of Ticket to Ride and legacy game fans,” said Adrien Martinot, Game Line Manager at Days of Wonder “With Legends of the West, each game is different, with the story unfolding one layer at a time. New rules and game elements will punctuate this unique play experience, rife with unexpected events and cunning rivals.”

Just like in Ticket to Ride, completing tickets remains the main objective in Ticket to Ride® Legacy: Legends of the West. But, as the games unfold, players will deal with unanticipated situations, opportunities, and chance to fill their vault with winnings. They will open new frontiers which unlock new rules, additional content, and many other surprises. In short, it’s a whole new ride. “It was crucial for us to provide new experiences and new gameplay features and not rehash mechanics from our successful Map Collection line” said Adrien, “Nearly all of the mechanics created by Alan, Rob and Matt are completely new to the Ticket to Ride game line”. Also, once the campaign is over, players will have a unique and personal map on which they can keep on playing.

Designed for 2-5 players aged 10+, each of the 12 journeys in Ticket to Ride® Legacy: Legends of the West offers players an immersive experience of storytelling lasting from 20 to 90 minutes. Ticket to Ride® Legacy: Legends of the West includes 13 Frontier Boards, 280 Plastic Train Cars, 1 Campaign Box, 84 Train Cards, 33 Tickets, 7 Event Cards, 6 Newspaper Cards, 77 Postcards, 1 Story Deck, 5 Company Boxes; 8 Frontier Boxes; 1 Conductor's Toolbox; 1 Rules Booklet, and much more to discover!

The game will be demonstrated for the first time at Gen Con taking place in Indianapolis from the 3rd to the 6th of August and later in the year at the Essen Spiel from the 5th to the 8th of October before it is available in stores November 3 at an SRP of EUR 109,99/USD119.99

About Days of Wonder

Days of Wonder develops and publishes unique games in their genre. The company's "Play Different" slogan reflects its vision of publishing: Days of Wonder limits its productions to very few new games, focusing on quality rather than quantity, and developing highly refined digital adaptations. The unparalleled successes—such as Ticket to Ride®, the world's best-selling train game; Small World® and its epic conquests in a fantastic universe; and Memoir '44®, the World War II reference game with over twenty expansions—motivate Days of Wonder to raise the bar ever higher. Days of Wonder board games are distributed in 40 countries and their digital versions are available on the App Store, Google Play, Steam, and the Days of Wonder website at www.daysof wonder.com.
