Ghosts and Pumpkin Trains to Haunt Ticket to Ride iPad for Halloween

iPad gamers are in for a treat - and a trick or two - in this update to the best-selling Ticket to Ride iOS board game

Los Altos, CA; Paris, France – October 18, 2012 – The skeleton crew at the Days of Wonder Mansion has released a haunting update to their best-selling digital board game Ticket to Ride® just in time for All Hallows Eve. Rabid fans of the game will be treated to a haunted train station with killer game skins; and tricked to pursue buried-alive achievements and catch ghosts that, once found, will make them undisputed Pumpkin Masters of the Ticket to Ride Universe.

“We’ve made our two Halloween achievements devilishly tricky, but the rewards will be wicked fun for some of our more entombed players.” Said Dark Kaufmann, Vice Presi-dead of Macabre for Days of Wonder. “Fresh meat may not stand a ghost of a chance.”

The Days of Wonder ghouls aren’t coffin up many clues, as the new “Ghost Catcher” and “Pumpkin Master” achievements are shrouded in mystery. Rumor has it that a special treat will be sent to the first players whose Tweets or Facebook shares catch Days of Wonder’s attention this Halloween season!

The updates to the Ticket to Ride App(aritions) bleed into the Poisoned Apple app store today.
