

CHALLENGERS!

ALTERNATE DRAFT RULE

You can use the following draft rule to streamline the Deck Phase. It may also be used to help new players familiarize themselves with the game. It replaces Step B of the Deck Phase for all players.

DECK PHASE

Players already familiar with the 1st Challengers! game can read only the highlighted text.

B Draw and pick cards.

Draw 7 cards from the available Level Pile of the current round instead of 5.

The letter A, B or C shows the available Level Pile. The amount of card icons shows how many cards you can pick and add to your deck.

The white stars show the amount of fans you take if you choose this option (Introduced in Challengers! Beach Cup).

Discard the cards you did not pick in the discard compartment of the corresponding card tray. When no additional card fits in the compartment, shuffle all cards in it and place them at the bottom of the corresponding Level Pile.

Pick the remaining cards randomly from the same Level Pile.

Then proceed to Phase C.

Example

According to the 6th round of her Tournament Plan, Ella has to choose between picking 2 cards from Level-B-Pile or picking 1 card from the Level-C-Pile.

Ella draws 7 cards from the Level-B-Pile, picks the Clairvoyant and adds it to her deck. Ella does not want any of the remaining 6 drawn cards, so she discards them.

She then picks her second card randomly from the Level-B-Pile: a Cook card that she adds to her deck.
